VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Where Scripture meets real life

Fr Jumbim Torres OSA

This Sunday's readings present a radical truth: genuine faith requires us to step beyond our comfort zones and align our lives with God's divine vision.

In the Gospel, Peter rejects the idea of a suffering Messiah, prompting Jesus' firm correction: "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do" (Mt 16:23). We naturally seek a comfortable faith. It is easy to follow Christ in the safety of an established Christian country like Australia, where our faith is protected and comfortable. Yet, Jesus leaves no middle ground: we must deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow Him.

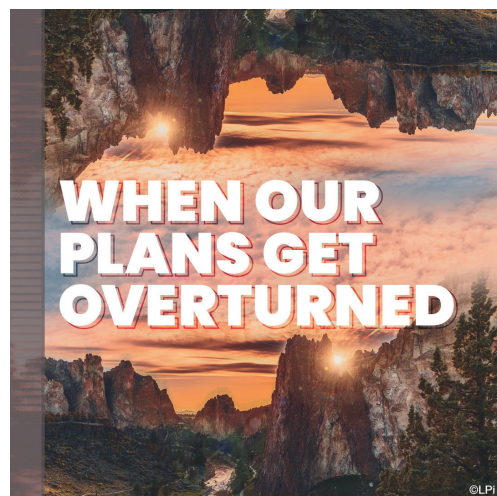

As it may have been announced a week ago, my own journey of taking up the cross is taking yet again a radical turn. I have volunteered and accepted a new mission assignment to Vietnam. Leaving the familiar comforts of Australia for a challenging foreign mission is a daunting choice. Suffering and hardship will be inevitable. Yet, stepping into this mission for a greater cause is required: to help plant seeds and establish a permanent space for our Augustinian Charism and Spirituality in that part of the world.

This step is sustained by the same inner impulse that drove the Prophet Jeremiah, who described God's word as a "fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones" (Jer 20:9). When driven by this divine fire, self-sacrifice ceases to be a burden and becomes our ultimate purpose.

Saint Paul also reminds us: "Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice... Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind" (Rom 12:1-2).

As I prepare for this new assignment, I ask for your prayers, support, and encouragement. Going about our daily routines this week, let us ask ourselves: Where am I seeking to avoid the Cross, and how can I offer my daily struggles as a living sacrifice to God?

May we all have the courage to embrace our daily crosses, knowing that real life is found not in preserving our comfort, but in surrendering all to Christ. Amen.

ONE HEART, MANY HANDS JOIN OUR PARISH EVENTS TEAM

Our parish events are made possible by the generosity of people who are willing to lend a hand. We're putting together a Parish Events Team — a group of parishioners we can call on from time to time to help with things like setting up, serving refreshments, welcoming people, packing up, and other practical tasks at parish gatherings and celebrations. There is no ongoing commitment and you don't need to be available for every event. When help is needed, we'll simply let the team know and you can volunteer when you're available. Whether you can give an hour, help occasionally, or simply be an extra pair of hands when needed, we'd love to have you involved. Interested? Scan the QR code to register your interest. One Heart. Many Hands. Together, we can make our parish gatherings happen!
