VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Where Scripture meets real life

 Stella Bahin

This story happened over 30 years ago, yet it remains one of the most profound moments of grace in my life.

My dear mother was in Royal North Shore Hospital, and my brother and I had just been told she had only hours to live. I was devastated—she was 89, but to me she was timeless, my rock. In that moment of shock, it was my brother, a lapsed Catholic, who quietly suggested calling a priest.

Mum had been a faithful Catholic all her life—educated by the Mercy Sisters in Parramatta, married at St Francis Xavier's in Lavender Bay, and a devoted parishioner of St Michael's, Lane Cove, for over 65 years. Even when age prevented her from attending Mass, her faith never wavered.

We stepped into the hospital corridor to talk. Anyone familiar with Royal North Shore knows how vast those corridors are. Yet, within minutes—what I can only describe as a miracle—a man walked toward us. I noticed his Roman collar and, without thinking, called out rather awkwardly, “Excuse me... so which one are you?”

He smiled gently and replied, “I’m Father Colin Munday, the Catholic Chaplain here.” The timing felt far more than coincidence—it felt like God’s hand at work.

Father Colin kindly came to Mum’s bedside. He spoke to her with warmth, offering the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and then Holy Communion. As Mum had not been eating, he broke the host in two—one half for her, and one for me.

In that sacred moment, I shared my mother’s final meal. It was not just any meal, but the Body of Christ. It remains one of the greatest gifts I have ever received.

There was even a gentle touch of humour in God’s providence. Mum had once wanted the Confirmation name “Augustine,” but was discouraged from choosing a man’s name. Yet at her Requiem Mass at St Kieran’s, two Augustinian priests presided. I like to think God smiled at that.

Years later, I encountered Father Colin again and was able to thank him. His unexpected presence that day, and the grace he brought, left a lasting imprint on my heart. God truly is with us—often when we least expect it. And once we begin to recognise that, everything changes.

ST KIERAN'S CAR PARK ACCESS CONTROL UPGRADE

Due to the recent period of wet weather, some aspects of the installation have been delayed. To allow sufficient time for the final installation, commissioning and testing of the system, the parish is now planning for the new parking system to become operational on Monday, 3 August 2026.

Our priority is to ensure the system is fully tested and operating reliably before it is introduced to the parish and school community.

Further information will be provided over the coming weeks, before the system goes live.

Thank you for your continued patience and understanding as we complete this important project to improve the safety, security and accessibility of our parish.
